OUT OF THIS WORLD ENTERTAINMENT – THE VOCA PEOPLE

BOERNE, TX – October 1, 2014. The VOCA PEOPLE will be landing in Boerne...and they are talented, charming, witty, delightful, and turning the world of a cappella singing on its head. Actually, they are turning the world on their bright white heads! With the launch of their first YouTube video in 2009 (with no fanfare, no advertising, no nothing), this group had two million hits within one month. The “out of this world” VOCA PEOPLE began “touring around the world of Earth!”

Whether performing at the Ancient Ruins of the Roman Colosseum, or the state-of-the-art Boerne Champion Auditorium, the VOCA PEOPLE tour the world performing at various iconic architectural monuments. To name a few, VOCA PEOPLE have been sited at the Tower Eiffel, Sagrada Familia in Barcelona, on the beaches of Buenos Aires, and Red Square in Moscow.

While many shows make the claim that it is like no other, VOCA PEOPLE delivers in every sense of the show. Their astonishing vocals and impressive beat box rhythms, all done without a single instrument except their extraordinary voices, will fuel a 90-minute non-stop show that will range from TV theme songs...to classical music...to pop tunes. Creativity is defined in VOCA PEOPLE. Performing in over 25 countries around the world, this company heads to the Texas Hill Country as part of their second U.S. Tour.

Boerne Champion Stage will be invaded for one exclusive show at 7:30pm on Thursday, October 23!!

Boerne Performing Arts is thrilled to be presenting this world-renowned theatrical production that is described as the “vocal version” of The Blue Man Group. Whether witnessed by Jimmy Fallon, “The coolest show ever!” or the reviewers from The New York Times, “Simply Great! A Knockout! You leave the theater feeling entertained!” the consensus is overwhelming enthusiasm for the show.

VOCA PEOPLE tells the story of eight aliens from the planet Voca who have crash-landed on Earth after a millennium of space travel. They attempt to communicate with the audience, but quickly learn that we simply do not understand! The fuel that keeps them charged – music – needs to be restored through interaction with the audience. What follows is a delightful and completely a capella and beat box romp through over 70 songs that includes hits by Beethoven, Mozart, Queen, Madonna, The Black Eyed Peas, and more.

The clever costumes that clad the entire cast are white suits over white full body spandex suits with the face cut out. Paired with white makeup and vibrant red lipstick, the characters of the VOCA PEOPLE are similar to humans while being completely blank canvases.

Creator, Producer and Artistic Director Lior Kalfo is an award-winning comedian who created this invigorating, fresh, high-octane hilarious show that is bursting with electrifying energy. Under his reign, the cast excels in creating dynamically different characters that are mesmerizing and wholly entertaining. Musical Director and Arranger Shai Fishman has developed a cast that constantly and consistently blows the mind of the audience with their impressive vocal skills, landing on every pitch with pinpoint precision and creating simply gorgeous harmonies.
