

BOERNE PERFORMING ARTS ANNOUNCES SEASON NUMBER SEVEN!!!

BOERNE, TX – May 1, 2017. Boerne Performing Arts continues to bring exceptional professional international performing arts to the hill country with the announcement of their 2018 season. In their continued efforts to provide a broad spectrum of performing arts, they have searched the globe for variety and quality that will appeal to every age group...from the FOR KIDS student shows...to the master classes...to the evening performances! Board President Carol Schultz exclaims, “Our goal is to find something for everyone!”

The 2018 season tag line describes the upcoming shows as “Something unusual, Something new, Something for KIDS, and Something for you!”

(Photo left): The Ten Tenors will return to Boerne for a Special Event, a concert that will be in addition to the Boerne Performing Arts 3-concert series. Their musical style, flair, and charisma have made them a favorite for concertgoers during the first six seasons of Boerne Performing Arts.

Something unusual you say? Perhaps the highest level of musicianship that has been presented by Boerne Performing Arts will be a total of 35 virtuoso musicians performing a full concert ranging from Broadway – to Ragtime – to full orchestration of the classics. Get ready for this! These extraordinary musicians are the acclaimed Accordion Virtuosi of Russia! The accordion is a very highly regarded, respected and revered instrument in Russia, and Boerne will get to enjoy this amazing performance by an ensemble that began in 1943, during the siege of Leningrad. (February 15)

Something new! Boerne Performing Arts has presented artists from North America, Europe, Russia, Asia, Australia...and for the first time they will be introducing artists from a new continent...South America! Direct from Buenos Aires, Tango Fire will sizzle on stage with their twelve spectacular dancers and a quartet of brilliant musicians, as their show promises an electrifying evening that showcases some of the speediest footwork and tightest twirling in the dance business! (January 23)

Something for THE KIDS! The overwhelming favorite show that has been experienced by the FOR KIDS programs offered by Boerne Performing Arts is the TAO drummers from Japan. With an all-new show, Drumheart, the internationally acclaimed percussion artists who have transfixed audiences worldwide, will be back to mesmerize another 1,000 students (plus 1,000 concertgoers at the evening show) with their modern, magical and mystifying performance hallmarking the ancient art of Japanese taiko drumming. (April 13)

And last but not least, Something for You! - The enthusiastic and supportive audiences that have been attending Boerne Performing Arts events for the first six seasons. With numerous requests for a repeat performance by the vocal wonders from down under, a special event has been added to the three concert series that will feature The Ten Tenors in their brand new show, "Wish You Were Here!" This musical tribute is a celebration of musical legends lost before their time. Honoring artists from David Bowie to Amy Winehouse to John Lennon, The Ten Tenors will take you on a feel-good excursion through some of the world's greatest hits. (February 20).

Thanks to the continued financial support by Boerne Performing Arts' patrons and corporate sponsors, season ticket prices will remain at the same price level for the 2018 season. Season Ticket packages for the 3-concert series are available as follows:
