

small town...BIG EVENTS!!!

BOERNE, TX – October 1, 2015. Boerne Performing Arts is putting our “small town” on the international touring map once again when artists from Australia, Los Angeles, Japan, and New York make their way to Boerne to be front and center as they entertain local audiences with a variety of professional performing arts. The upcoming presentations by Boerne Performing Arts will be a true celebration of this young organization’s celebratory fifth anniversary season.

Boerne Performing Arts is thrilled to announce two great arrivals in December of 2015. We all know that “Santa Claus is Coming to Town”, but a myriad of other Christmas songs will also be heard when The Ten Tenors present their brand new festive show, “Home for the Holidays”. These vocal superstars received three standing ovations in Boerne when they presented their “On Broadway” show in January of 2014...and this dynamic “power of ten” is including Boerne as one of 34 stops in their December tour that criss-crosses the country from Oregon to Florida in a span of 40 days. A wonderful present for the holidays!

From Australia - The Ten Tenors present a special holiday performance that will be a magical experience for the whole family. The “Vocal Wonder from Down Under” will dazzle, delight and captivate with their renditions of traditional and contemporary seasonal favorites, capturing the spirit of the season. Thursday, December 17, 2015.

From Los Angeles – A red carpet event as Boerne experiences “A Night at the Oscars” presented by the Hollywood Concert Orchestra. Boerne Performing Arts’ board member and movie star, Cheryl Ladd, will emcee an evening that salutes the music of the stars...a musical journey highlighting the greatest hits from the silver screen! Saturday, February 6, 2016.

From Japan – TAO will return to Boerne with an all-new show, “Seventeen Samurai”. TAO has performed for over 6 million spectators worldwide and has critics raving about the extraordinary precision, energy, and innovative choreography that transport the tradition of taiko drumming into a contemporary spectacle. Thursday, February 25, 2016.

From New York City – The fanciful “topsy-turvy” world of Gilbert & Sullivan will make its comic debut in Boerne with “The Pirates of Penzance”. Premiered in 1879, this entertaining musical production is the legacy of British humor continuing to entertain audiences with a successful Broadway run 100 years later. And now, the swashbuckling buccaneers, bumbling British bobbies and frolicsome Victorian maidens will steal your heart away as they sail into Boerne. Friday, April 8, 2016.

Single tickets for the December 2015 special event, “Home for the Holidays” by the Ten Tenors, are available now at www.BoernePerformingArts.com.
