BOERNE, TX – October 2, 2014. As Halloween Trick or Treat activities continue to pop up around town, eight special costumed artists will be landing on the stage at Boerne Champion Auditorium. The Dodging Duck is offering a Free Coozie for each ticket purchased to the VOCA PEOPLE performance in Boerne, Texas, on Thursday, October 23! The famed local duck is trying to work his way into the a cappella singing sensation with his own unique beat box rhythms!

The world-renowned VOCA PEOPLE will be landing in Boerne and presenting one exclusive concert that will have your head spinning! These talented, charming, witty, delightful, and unbelievable vocalists will entertain this planet like no other extra-terrestrial could!!!

Local sponsors: Hill Country Memorial-Boerne, Jennings Anderson Ford, and the Boerne Convention and Visitors Bureau make these performances possible. "The generosity of these local businesses to provide the funding required to present world-class shows like Voca People is the heart and soul of our community," comments Carol Schultz, President of Boerne Performing Arts. "Our 100% volunteer committee sincerely appreciates the support by these three organizations as they make it possible for our community to host a world-class performing arts program."

The Dodging Duck has partnered with Boerne Performing Arts to promote this special evening of vocal entertainment. Part of the fun has been created with Voca People coasters and coozies that include links to hear this incredible a cappella singing group.
