BOERNE PERFORMING ARTS features THE 5 BROWNS!

BOERNE, TX – May 15, 2012. 3 Sisters, 2 Brothers...1 Mission! The 5 Browns, a picture-perfect family of piano virtuosos, are the only known set of siblings to study for five consecutive years at the Juilliard School. Their mission: to make classical music hip to echo boomers. Named by Reader's Digest in their America's 100 Best inspiring stories and amazing people, The 5 Browns are exclusive Steinway Artists and are bringing their 5 Steinway Grand Pianos to Boerne, Texas, on February 9, 2013.

The 5 Browns...classical music's first family of piano virtuosos...have toured the world with sublime virtuosity that has propelled these twenty-something year old siblings to the top of the nation's classical music charts!

All throughout the quintet's career, The 5 Browns have been astounded by the audiences' enthusiastic responses to their performances in Carnegie Hall and Lincoln Center as well as in a prodigious variety of venues throughout the world. The 5 Browns have dazzled audiences in the UK, France, Germany, Japan and Korea. They present themselves just as they really are: young adults with a modern look who love fashion, sports, computer games, dancing and all types of music – most of all, classical.

When The 5 Browns sit down to perform on their five Steinway grand pianos...their eyes lock...a silent signal passes between them. In an instant they are transformed, from "regular" kids to musical dynamos. Flawless in precision and steeped in passion, they invariably stun critics and shatter the preconceptions of those who think classical music inscrutable or intimidating.

The 5 Browns are a wonderful family event...a family on stage performing for families in the audience. Cathie Meadows, member of the Boerne Performing Arts Committee, comments, "We are looking forward to the entire 2013 Boerne Performing Arts Series which will feature events that can be attended by the entire family and will appeal to all genres of the performing arts. Drumline Live will have special appeal to students and their parents who have been involved with a band program, Celtic Nights will highlight dance and vocal music, while The 5 Browns will appeal to all genres of music through their unique orchestration using five grand pianos."
