

TANGO...the heart and soul of Buenos Aires!

BOERNE, TX – January 1, 2018 – Tango Fire, the hottest show direct from Buenos Aires, Argentina, will sizzle on the stage of Champion Auditorium on Tuesday, January 23rd. Boerne Performing Arts will be presenting this dance production featuring a quartet of brilliant young musicians, a sensational singer, and ten fiery dancers.

Now is your chance to see on stage, and in person, the excitement of dance that has been viewed by millions on “So You Think You Can Dance?” and “Dancing with the Stars!” The fabulous costumes and the unforgettable music will highlight one of the world’s most popular dance forms...the tango. The success of Tango Fire has been phenomenal, performing at some of the world’s most prestigious concert halls and theatres in cities including London, Sydney, New York, Toronto, Los Angeles, Shanghai, Hamburg, Zurich, Seoul, Kuala Lumpur and Johannesburg. They will now be “burning it up” in Boerne!

For nearly two hundred years, the Tango has danced its way into musical history. International Tango Superstar Germán Cornejo, with his astonishingly beautiful dance partner Gisela Galeassi, are joined by a cast of extraordinary couples, including several World Tango Champions and the best dancers from Buenos Aires’ famous tango houses. The art of Tango has never been so superb and dynamic!

Performing recently at the United States premiere dance facility, The Joyce Theater in New York City, the reviews raved, “Tango Fire glides along as smoothly as an express train without ever derailing...excellent orchestra...daring speed...silken extensions. As the title goes, they were on fire!” (New York Times).

So, if you think you are a fan of “So You Think You Can Dance?” on Fox network, or “Dancing with the Stars” on ABC, you now have your chance to see live and up close, the dance craze that has been sweeping our nation! It takes “two to tango”, so grab a friend and enjoy the fiery footwork and sizzling steps of Tango Fire!
